

Modular Learning System on Supply Chain Management (MLS-SCM)

Course Description

MLS-SCM is a practical, continuously updated and supported training pack that can help you to make effective international purchasing and supply chain management become a key factor for your company's competitiveness and success. The programme is currently offered by 135 institutions in over 50 countries. More than 1000 trainers attached to these institutions are involved in teaching the programme and more than 20,000 professionals have benefited from this training since the programme started in 2001.

BCaD-Consulting Management has signed a license agreement with ITC in April 2009 with paying a licence fee to disseminate the program in Ethiopia. ITC (International Trade Center) is the focal point institution in the UN system providing technical cooperation to developing countries and economies in transition in the area of international trade promotion and development.

“Buying into competitiveness” A new initiative too costly to miss!!

The MLS-SCM programme was singled out as a model for sustainable training capacity development in the ITC programme evaluation in 2007. It offers an internationally recognised professional certification programme.

The programme offers three levels of professional recognition as follows:

- International Certificate in supply chain management, awarded after successful completion of the exams for Modules 1-6 (level one).
- Advanced International Certificate in supply chain management, awarded after successful completion of the exams for the above Modules plus Modules 7-12 (level two).
- International Diploma supply chain management, awarded upon completion of all the 12 Modules plus 3 of the supplementary Modules (13-16) & successful completion of the Project report or Module 13-18. This is level three.

Exams are taken in the home country, with the local MLS-SCM network member institution being responsible for handling all local arrangements; in the Ethiopian case BCaD-Consulting Management is in charge. The exams themselves are developed and marked by an international panel of experts consisting of high-level specialists from all continents. Paper-based exams are organised twice a year and online exams (as an option) will become available during June 2010.

The program is aimed at present and future Executive managers, supply chain managers, procurement & logistics officers and others who wish to develop a career in SCM. This personnel's can come from government organizations, Non Government Organizations and different business such as import/export, trading, manufacturing industries and others.
