

Training and Consulting Programs	Enables to
Entrepreneurship Development Training of Trainings (CEFE Approach)	Develop your training delivery methodologies, become a competent CEFE entrepreneurship trainer
Modular Learning System-International Purchasing and Supply Chain Management (MLS-IPSCM)	Enables enterprises to respond to the rapidly growing need to develop skills in Supply Chain Management which is a key area for competitiveness and export performance.
Entrepreneurial competency building for literates and illiterates	Improve your negotiation skill, develop network, persistence, risk taking, problem solving skill, information seeking skill
Business Plan Preparation	Generate your innovative business ideas, formulate your own business plan
Project Cycle Management (PCM)	Develop your ability to conceive, design, implement, monitor and evaluate development projects
Build your personal competencies	Start a flexible life style, improve your entrepreneurial quality, enhance your creative skill
Export Marketing Management	Build your export marketing capabilities and expand your market overseas
Business Development Service for PSD organizations	Market based solutions through research, developing tailored consulting, training and counselling programs and outreach
Unlocking personal competencies	Broaden your vision, set your own goal, be innovative, build your self-confidence
Business transformation	Get your business diagnosed, develop a competitive business strategy to boost your bargaining power and increase your market share
Value Chain Analysis and Development	Identify sub-sectors with growth potential, analyze farm to fork value chain, improve out grower schemes
Build your employees' competency	Align your employees' value with your company's value
Organize effective seminars and workshops	Organizing your participants database, elaborating your seminar program, arranging conducive venues